Dedicated to Those Who Mourn

And God shall wipe away all tears from

Revelation 21:4

SWIFT FUNERAL HOME
HAMILTON, IND.

THE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
Undying love.

MRS. EUNICE EVERETTS PASSED AWAY AT ANGOLA

Mrs. Eunice Everetts, wife of the late Joseph Everetts, passed away at Angola on Tuesday of last week after being ill for some time. She and her husband were former residents of Hamilton. Funeral services were held at the Swift Funeral home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. Charles Brand and burial was made in Hamilton cemetery.

OBITUARY

Eunice Idora Slentz, daughter of Jacob and Harriett Slentz, was born in Franklin township, Dekalb County on July 2, 1866. Departed this life January 2, 1940, aged 73 years and six months.

September 4, 1886, she was united in marriage to Joseph W. Everetts, who preceded her in death March 5, 1931. To this union was born three children, two sons, William Everetts of Hamilton; Jacob, who preceded her in death, May 3, 1913, and one daughter, Elva Rensch of Angola.

Her entire life was spent in the vicinity of Hamilton except three years she lived in Decatur, Alabama.

She was of a quiet home- loving disposition, a loving mother. She found the Lord in the winter of 1933, in a revival meeting in Hamilton, Ind., with Charles O. Brand as evangelist. She remained true to the Faith and has leaned on the everlasting arms of a loving Savior. The home-going was sweet and peaceful.

She leaves to cherish her memory, one son, William, one daughter, Elva six grand children, Raymond, Kermit, Virginia Howard and Betty Rensch, Ida Mae Everetts, one great grand child, Carolyn Rensch, one grand daughter-in-law, Mrs. Naomi Rensch, one foster grand daughter, Mrs. Carol Penland, four foster great grand children, two sisters, Mrs. Adelade Everetts and Miss Myrtle Slentz, both of Hamilton, one son-in-law, Harley Rensch, one daughter-in-law Mrs. Lois Everetts, four brothers in law, five sisters in law, and a large number of nieces and nephews.

Into each life some rain must fall,
Some days must be dark and dreary.
But Christ is able to calm each storm,
If we put our trust in Him.

In Remembrance of James Whitcomb Riley

I will sing in fond remembrance,
Of our hoosier poet king;
Who has made the world far better,
For his poem we learned to sing.
Handcock county can well boast,
Of it's poet who could the nation sway.
Who will be the Hoosier poet,
Since Whitcomb Riley passed away?

Who can read his poems
With the eye undimmed?
Who can say the world is not better,
For the trust God gave to him?
Every poem that he gave us,
Was to him a gift from God;
His poem, Apple Blossoms,
And the Yellow Golden Rod.

Now in Greenfield he is sleeping,
Close beside the Brandywine;
Where in other days he wandered,
In the golden childhood time.
Let us profit from his poem,
Let us keep this point in view;
And the teaching of his poems,
To our children will be true.

We have read his poems,
Yes we've read them one by one;
Who can tell the joy it gave him,
Read by old and by the young.
Read by saint and sinner,
But his gift, it came from God;
Farewell Riley, we will miss you,
Sleeping there beneath the sod.

Years will come and years must go,
As through this world we roam:
Let us keep our trust in God,
An one by one we're gathered home.
Riley, we will miss you,
Miss your poems of purest gold;
In a better world we will meet you,
When life's tale it has been told.

Obituary of Jacob Slentz

Jacob Slentz, son of Henry and L dia Slentz, was born in Columbiana County, Ohio, July 16, 1833.

When a young man he moved with his parents to DeKalb county, Ind., and settled on the now old Slentz homestead and from there moved to Hamilton. He was united in marriage to Harriet Pollard, April 29, 1860. To this union was born 12 children, 4 sons and 8 daughters. Two sons and four daughters preceeded him to the spirit world.

He served his country in the war of the Rebellion entering in Co. F 44th Ind., Vol. Inf., served three years; received an honorable discharge Sept. 14, 1865. He was taken prisoner at Stone River and was in Libby two months.

He never joined any church but was an adherent and supporter of church work and interests. He was known as an honest citizen until death called him early Friday morning May 31st, 1912, at the age of 78 years, 10 mo. 15 days.

He leaves to mourn his departure, a companion with whom he toiled for over half a century, two sons, Arthur and Err, both of DeKalb county; four daughters, Eunice Everitt, of Decatur, Ala., Allie Everitt, Metz, Ind.; Clara Neidic, Butler, Ind., and Myrtle, living at home; 15 grandchildren, 2 great-grand-children, 1 brother, 3 sisters and a large circle of relatives and neighbors.

Funeral was held from the M. E. church Sunday, June 2nd, conducted by Rev. O. B. Wells, assisted by Rev. Kimberling and Rev. Campbell. The Grange also had a part in the services at the cemetery. The body was buried in the Hamilton cemetery.

A precious one from us is gone, A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.
God, in his wisdom, has recalled The boon his love had given;
And, though the body slumber here, The soul is safe in Heaven.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank friends and neighbors who kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our husband and father. Mrs. Jacob Slentz and Children.

Resolutions of Respect.

The silent Reaper has again invaded our Grange and gathered a sheaf of his own selection and borne it to the great storehouse into which all will sooner or later be garnered. Brother Jacob Slentz was a charter member of Hamilton Grange, No. 2109, of Steuben county. By earnest endeavor and faithful service for twelve years he proved his fidelity to the order to which his life was dedicated. His pleasant smile, cheerful greeting and efficient service have contributed much to make many sessions of this Grange so pleasant and successful.

Resolved: That the order has lost a true patron: the state an ideal citizen; and the nation one of its patriotic defenders. The world is better for his having lived, Well are the words of Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" reflected in his evening twilight:

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark.
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For tho' from out our bourne of time and place,
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

: Re: DR. JOHN PALM, BAVARIA, PA by Cora Hursey of 103

I have a photo of Dr. John Palm's tombstone that lists the death of Catherine Salome Fenger in 1764. I also have her birth in 1730 which would have made her 34 years old. I show her death to have been in Palmyra, Pa. Are you sure that the Catherine born Jul 1, 1709 in Backnang and died in 1747 in Bindnagles was the same Catherine married to Dr. John Palm? The children I have listed and their spouses do match my listings though. I am interested in learning more about this generation. I am missing the data on Nicholas (My ancestor), Andrew, Michael (which I have listed as dying in 1836 at the age of 66 years 2 months and 11 days which makes him born on May 20, 1770 but his mother died in 1764), and Mary. If any one has this data please email me at jssmith@atinc.com

I am descended from Dr. John Palm through my maternal ancestors. John Palm/Catherine Solome Fenger were my 5th generation grandparents. Their only child that I have in my data base is Jacob Palm, from whom I am descended.

Your information regarding Dr. John Palm pretty much agrees with mine except for a few minor spelling differences. My records show that he was born in Helsbraun, Bavaria. He was a surgeon in the Revolutionary War. His son Jacob also served in that war. I feel that, due to birth dates, Catherine Solome Fenger was his first wife. She was only age 34 when she died. The DAR index lists his spuose as Christine Dorothy Kern. She must have been his second wife (or at least was his wife when he died). ?

Jacob Palm operated a tavern in an area of Cumberland County, PA. that eventually became Palmstown. I have much data on the descendants of Jacob if you are interested.

My information shows that Catherine Salome Fenger was Dr. John Palm's second wife, and that they were married circa 1753 as their son, Jacob, was born in 1754. This is all I know about them and would love to know more.
I do know that Jacob married Mary Dorothea Bishop and had at least one child: Mary Magdalene Palm, born 1795. Please e-mail me if you can add to this info. Thank you.

Biography of George Putt, page 580. History of De Kalb County, Indiana.

George Putt, one of the most prosperous and prominent of the early settlers of De Kalb County, was born in Berks County, Pa., Nov. 19, 1814, the eldest son of Jacob and Catharine (Shaffer) Putt, native of Pennsylvania, of English and German descent. He was reared in his native State, and when fifteen years of age began driving a freight team over the mountains, a vocation he followed fifteen years. About 1835 he settled in Lebanon County, Pa., and in 1841 moved to Stark County, Ohio, and eleven months later, in 1842, came to Indiana and entered forty acres of land, and bought forty more in De Kalb County. It was located in the dense timber, but he went to work and soon had enough cleared to build a log cabin and raise a crop. He has been successful and to his land has added forty acres till now he has 120 acres of choice land, all well improved. He was married Nov. 15, 1835, to Sarah Ann, daughter of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Polm) Getz, native of Pennsylvania, of German descent. To them were born two children---Levi and Joanna Elizabeth Catharine, wife of John Anstett. Mrs. Putt died Sept 9, 1884. She, as has also Mr. Putt, have been a member of the German Reform church from her youth. Politically, Mr. Putt is a Democrat.

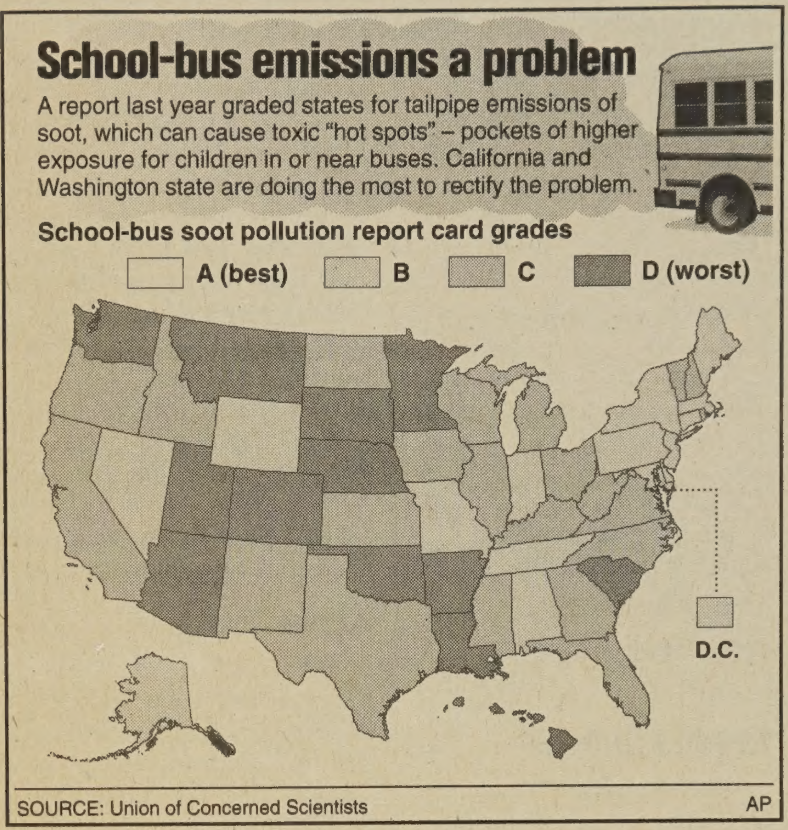
Little done to fix school bus emissions



School-bus emissions a problem

A report last year graded states for tailpipe emissions of soot, which can cause toxic "hot spots" – pockets of higher exposure for children in or near buses. California and Washington state are doing the most to rectify the problem.

School-bus soot pollution report card grades

reduce tailpipe emissions by at least 85 percent. Closed crankcase filtration systems, which go under the hood and cost $7,500, can reduce engine soot by about 90 percent. A bus can be fitted with one or both filters.

An estimated 390,000 diesel school buses are on the road in the U.S., according to the EPA. Most newer buses were manufactured to meet stricter emissions guidelines and do not need filters. But about one-third of the nation's diesel school-bus fleet, or more than 100,000 buses, were manufactured before 1990 and are big polluters, according to EPA.

Researchers say older buses also let lots of emissions enter through doors and windows. The longer the ride, the more harmful to children, they say.

"The exhaust that swirls around the bus gets into the bus and can stay elevated throughout the ride," said Betin Santos, an air quality specialist for the group Environmental Defense.

Rice talks with Iran foreign minister Mottaki not substantive

SHARM EL-SHEIK, Egypt (AP) — Iran's foreign minister boycotted a dinner of diplomats where he was to be seated directly across from Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, ostensibly because a female violinist playing at the hotel venue was dressed too revealingly.

"I don't know which woman he was afraid of, the woman in the red dress or the secretary of state," State Department spokesman Sean McCormack said Friday.

Rice and Iranian Foreign Minister Manouchehr Mottaki met earlier at a lunch Thursday but exchanged only pleasantries. Neither appeared ready to make the first move for a real meeting.

"You can ask him why he didn't make an effort," Rice told reporters Friday. "I'm not given to chasing anyone."

According to Iraq's foreign minister, Iranian and American ambassadors did meet Friday for more serious talks on the sidelines of the conference to stabilize Iraq — the second such encounter since March 10.

Iraqi Foreign Minister Hoshyar Zebari said the ambassadors' meeting was "positive" and said the two rival nations, both allies of the Baghdad government, should ease their disputes, which the Iraqis argue are only fueling their country's chaos.

Inventory issues trigger high gas prices

NEW YORK (AP) — The average price of gasoline topped $3 a gallon at the pump Friday, following the recent futures market run-up amid growing concerns that refineries are simply not making enough gas to meet peak summer demand.

But oil and gasoline futures fell on light volume Friday. Analysts said traders had little in the way of news to drive buying or selling, but may have sensed that the gasoline market has peaked.

"There isn't anything happening," said James Williams, an economist with WTRG Economics in London, Ark.

According to the Oil Price Information Service and AAA,

Friday, up 2.1 cents overnight. Prices at the pump generally lag the futures markets.

Gasoline futures for June delivery fell 1.14 cents to $2.2362 on the New York Mercantile Exchange.

Light, sweet crude for June delivery fluctuated in a narrow range early before falling 68 cents a barrel to $62.51 on the Nymex. Also on the Nymex, heating oil futures for June fell less than a penny to $1.845 a gallon, while natural gas prices rose 5.5cents to $8.002 per 1,000 cubic feet.

Brent crude for June delivery fell 35 cents to $65.70 a barrel on the ICE Futures exchange in London.

Tim Evans, an energy analyst at Citigroup Global market has peaked. But he cautioned that Friday's low trading volumes make energy markets more difficult than usual to read.

"A lower close in the gasoline market would at least keep hopes alive that we're seeing a seasonal top in that market," Evans said. "(But) the thing about light volume is that it doesn't take that much of a change to push prices back up."

Gas prices have been driven higher in recent months by a plethora of unexpected refinery outages and shutdowns in recent weeks. News Thursday that BP LLC's 400,000 barrel-per-day refinery in Whiting, Ind., will not be operating at full capacity for several months due to unexpected repairs is just the latest in a string of such

Legislators OK fireworks changes

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Local governments could restrict or ban the use of fireworks except during 12 days of the year under legislation that gained final legislative approval Saturday.

But residents and officials from several cities have complained about the new law, saying it has led to an increase in the use of fireworks and people shooting them off early in the morning.

The bill would give counties, cities and towns local control over the use of fireworks for most days of the year.

If local governments still wanted to permit their use year-round, they could. But communities where officials deemed them a problem could restrict their use.

Under the bill, the use of fireworks could not be limited at the following times:

- between 5 p.m. and two hours after sunset on June 29, June 30, July 1, July 2, July 3, July 5, July 6, July 7, July 8 and July 9;

Thomas Wheeler

THOMAS WHEELER, known as Senior, came to Concord, Massachusetts, and from there removed to Fairfield, CT, coming presumably with the party which Rev. John Jones brought from Concord in September, 1644. His brother or half-brother, Lieut. Thomas Wheeler, came from Concord with him. English families at that period sometimes gave the same name to two living children, and this was done occasionally in the early days in New England. Great confusion is found in printed accounts, due to the fact that there were two Thomas Wheelers in Fairfield, another in Milford, and still a fourth in New Haven, all on the coast of Connecticut, and at least three of these men gave the name Thomas to sons.

Thomas Wheeler

It is thought that Thomas Wheeler came to America with Rev Jones' Company aboard the Defiance in 1635, bringing with him his wife, children and some grandchildren. He was made a freeman in Concord MA on 17 Apr 1636. As a supporter of Rev Jones at the time of the dissension in the church at Concord, he removed with Rev Jones to Fairfield CT in 1644. His will is dated 16 Jan 1653 and proved 23 Aug 1654. English families at that period of time sometimes gave the same name to living children.....the result being there were two Thomas Wheelers in Fairfield at the same time....one was this Thomas and the other was his brother, plus they both had sons named Thomas. There is some confusion in the records because of this so care was taken to sort out the correcxt Thomas for this genealogy.

Classification: Query
Surnames: ABELL, HINE

According to "The Abell Family in America" by H.A. Abell and L.P. Abell, Ira H. is listed as a probable descendant of David Abell, born April 7, 1722; died June 23, 1781 at Sharon, CT. David Abell was married Alice Roberts of Colchester, CT. The book also agrees with the information you posted: Ira H.; married Alr Hine, Sept. 10, 1826; both of Sharon, CT.
Hope this helps.

Here is what I have concerning the "Abel/Hine" clans so far.
Ira H. Abel and Almira Hine were my G(x3) grandparents.

As always, please take this with a grain of salt, I have a long way to go to verify and confirm. Will try to s this to your e-mail address as a Word doc attachment.

I am looking for Almira's ancestors so any clues would be appreciated.

Thx,

Genealogy Society, Boston, MANOTE:(This from WFT disc 4, ped. 2728) Just why and when Thomas I left Eng. is not known. He came some time after the arrival of Gov.
Winthrop's fleet in 1630. Charles I became King of England in 1625, and, like his father (James I - whom he succeded) he persecuted the Puritans, who wanted to "purify" (reform) the Church of England as well as the dissenters who wanted complete separation. He infuriated the people not only in religious affairs, but also in local civic affairs and in the local malitia, called "trian-bands". He waged costly and unsuccessful wars in Europe.
To finance them, he extorted "loans" and levied illegal taxes. Thousands left England for New England, Virginia and the Barbados Islands. Their experiences in England affected what they thought and did in New England.

Thomas Bliss and his family came to Mass. Bay Colony sometime prior to 2/24/1640. On that date he was granted 36 acres of land because he had a family of 9. The land was at Mt. Wollaston in that part of Braintree that is now Quincy, MA.

In 1640 the family moved to Hartford on the CT River. He and his son Thomas were given land and were made proprietors of the undivided lands on 1/14/1641. Thomas was given 6 shares and his son 4 shares.

He was fined 3/4/1647 for not participating in the local Train-band (militia).

He d. at Hartford bef. 2/14/1651, when the inv. of his estate was taken. After his death, his widow continued in Hartford for abt. 2 yrs., then moved north up the CT River to Springfield, where her son Nathaniel had lived since 1645.

There is more abt. this family in the "Ancestry of Florence Able Stock".(JTH-8/2/97)The particular location of his birth within Gloucestershire is not known, however numerous Bliss records are traced to the Painswick area.. he resided in Rodborough, Gloucestershire at one time, and a son Nathaniel, was born and baptized December 28 1622. It was not his birth place. The reason for his presence was on Margaret Hulins (Hulings) of Rodborough.
Thomas came to America with his brother George, in 1635, landing at Boston, Massachusetts and then separated. Thomas settled in Mount (now Baintree) where he was called "Thomas of the Mount". His nephew, Thomas Bliss, son of his brother Jonathan settled with him. A year later they located in Hartford, Connecticut. Nephew Thomas Bliss was often called Thomas Bliss, Jr. The Bliss Street in Hartford Connecticut was changed to Trinity after 1855.
Thomas was in America by the time of his father-in-laws death, as in February 1640, his land was entered into the Hartford records, including his dwelling house. Here about 1638. Here follows a recital of his property, inventory of his estate, transcript of wife's will, etc. he was fined in 1647 for being absent from military training, a good indication that he was under age 60 at that time, but over 50, based on ages of his children. He died either late 1650 or early 1651 in Hartford Connecticut.. he had 58 acres of land only 86 pounds, 12 shillings, and 8 pence on February 14, 1650 inventory. His will was oral with daughter Mary Parsons as witness. Margaret, the widow was given power to administer the estate " if Shee so long continues a Widdow." After he died Margaret moved with the young children to Springfield, to be near her married children. There are several land records for her. Margaret died August 28 1684, her son Samuel of Springfield presented her last will and an inventory of her estate to the Hampshire County Court. The inventory of her estate was at 278 pounds, three times what her husband left her.

They also lived in Hartford, Connecticut.

Mary Bliss

B-55, Vol. 18, p. 107:Almost a full page is devoted to their family. She was tried for witchcraft, first accused in 1656, but not tried until 1670. She was sent to Boston, where she was acquitted. They lived in Northhampton, Massachusetts after 1654, but moved back to Springfield in 1679. Bliss book suggests reading Trumbull's History of Northhampton, Volume One, Pages 43-40 and 228-234 for more information on the witchcraft case.

Elizabeth Bliss

She was a twin to Hester. She was engaged to another man prior to her marriage to Sgt Morgan, but her intended husband was killed by Indians.

Samuel Bliss

It was recorded that he died at 96 years, but this is doubtful. (Discussion of indications of his age follow).

Thomas Bliss Sr Sr

He died in persecution as as a, Puritan, murdered.

From "Traditional History: Two of the men who went up to London from Devonshire were brothers Thomas & Jonathan Bliss; they rode 2 iron grey horse; they remained long enough for King Charles' officers to learn their names and conditions. They and others were marked for destruction. They were fined 1,000 pounds for nonconformity and thrown into prison. Even old Thomas Bliss, their father, was dragged through the streets with the greatest indignity.
The officers of the High Commission seized all their horses and sheep except one poor ewe that in its fright, ran into the house and took refuge under a bed. At another time, the 3 brothers with 12 more, were led through the marketplace in Okehampton with ropes around their necks and fined heavily. Jonathan and his father were thrown into prison where the sufferings of the former eventually caused his death. England was no longer home to them. Also see Bliss History of Rehoboth.

Thomas BLISS (42072), born 1618 at Preston Capes, Rodborough, Gloucestershire, England, married 30 Oct 1644 at Lyme, New London, Connecticut, died 15 Apr 1688 at Norwich, New London, Connecticut. He was at Hartford with his father and shortly after his father's death, he moved to Saybrook.

!History of Norwich, Connecticut: From its Possession by the Indians , to the Year 1866, Frances Manwaring Caulkins, 1976, page 167: Thomas Bliss , Senior and Junior, had house-lots and divisions of land in Hartford, as early as 1640. The senior died in Hartford, leaving nine children, and his widow, Margaret, apparently a woman of resolute, independent character, removed with the younger part of the family to Springfield. Thomas Bliss, Junior, is afterwards found at Saybrook, where his marriage and the births of six children are recorded. The list is repeated with some variation of date and the addition of two more children, at Norwich. The wife's family name is not given in either place. "Thomas and Elizabeth Bliss were married the latter end of October, 1644." The allotments of Thomas Bliss in Saybrook were eastward of the river in what is now Lyme. His house-lot of thirty acres lay between John Ompsted (Olmstead) on the north, and John Lay south. He sold it, July 23, 1662, to John Comstock. His home-ot in Norwich was also near to that of John Olmstead, extending originally, at the north-west, to the pent highway. That part where the house stands, has never been alienated. Seven generations have dwelt on the same spot, and the house is supposed not to have been entirely rebuilt since it wa erected by the first proprietor. Thomas Bliss died April 15, 1688. His will, executed two days before his death, was proved at New London, before Edward Palmes, June 13, and allowed by Sir Edmun Adross at Boston; this being the period when that delegated despot arrogated to himself supreme authority over the courts of New England will recognizes wife Elizabeth, son Samuel, and six daughters. His oldest son, Thomas, had died without issue,

Jan. 29, 1681. Elizabeth the relict , died Feb. 28, 1699-1700. Samuel Bliss married, Dec. 8, 1681, Anna, daughter of John Elderkin. Five of his daughters married as follows: Elizabeth married Edward Smith of New London, June 7, 1663. Sarah married 1st, Thomas Sluman, Dec., 1668 ; 2d, Solomon Tracy. Deliverance (recorded also Deliver and Dolinda) married Josiah Rockwell, 1688. Rebecca, the youngest daughter, born in 1663, had not been traced. In the inventory of Thomas Bliss, his estate is estimated at 182 pounds. He had land, besides his home-lot, over the river, - on the Little Plain, - at the Great Plain, - at the Falls, - in Yantie meadow, - in meadow at Beaver Brook, - in pasture east of the town, - and on Westward hill. This illustrated the prudential course of the early rulers of the plantation in regard to the common lands. They were divided in small quantities at short intervals, corresponding to the growth and necessities of the town and the ability of the owners to clear them up and place them un

PETER FAMILY

RE: Breyfogel Gen

Peter. The Peter family to which Mrs. Esther (Pete belonged is descended from Engle Peter, who about the year 17 religious persecution was rife in the old world, left his hor Germany and with his wife and son Abraham, the latter still i set sail for America, landing at Philadelphia. Though there families of the name in Germany, he is said to have been the to America. Learning of a region about fifty miles northwest where there was an abundance of fine oak timber growing along two small streams called Manathawian, Engle Peter and his far started for what is now Oley Township, Berks County, and afte nearly a week they found the place; the two streams now are ( Manatawny and Furnace Creeks. Several large Indian villages strong. There were some good wrestlers among the Indians, but Mr. Peter could overthrow the best of them without difficulty, though he frequently allowed the Indians to throw him for policy's sake. Shortly after his arrival he built a one-story log house, 15 x 25 feet in dimensions. The foundation, which was removed about a half century ago by David T. Peter, of near Freidensburg, is said to have been the work of a first-class mason. Engle Peter had learned blacksmithing in the old country, and among those who accompanied him to Oley were two other blacksmiths, but their trades were of no use to them as they had no tools and no smithy, the nearest smithy being where Germantown now is. It was shortly after 1720 when they secured a few tools, and Engle Peter from that time on divided his time between farming and blacksmithing. He was an expert maker of cutlery.

Abraham Peter, son of Engle, worked the farm while his father cared for the smithy. In 1719 the Peter farm had but 150 acres, but subsequently Abraham took up several hundred acres more. In 1742, with the aid of other carpenters, Abraham commenced building a log house near his father's. The boards for floors and partitions were sawed by hand, and the roof was of tile. The house was two storied, 27 x 36 feet in dimensions, and it was finished before the end of the year. It was torn down in 1862 when the spacious stone house was erected, but some of the old flooring and partitions were used in the straw shed now on the farm. As soon as his house was done Abraham married a daughter of Samuel Hoch, of Oley, and they lived on the old farm, cultivating it jointly with Engle Peter until the latter's death, when Abraham became the sole owner.

Daniel Peter, son of Abraham, was born December 2, 1747, and died November 25, 1816. On December 24, 1776, he married Magdalena Romig, born September 10, 1750, died July 30, 1820. (Two dates are given for Daniel's death - November 25, 1816, and November 28, 1818). To Daniel and Magdalena were born children as follows: Marion, born October 8, 1777, died April 1809; Abraham, born February 23, 1779, died September 5, 1824; Catherine, born April 18, 1781, m. Deider Bachtel, and died in May 1832; Esther, born September 9, 1782, m. (first) Solomon Breyfogel and (second) his brother George Breyfogel, and died March 26, 1860; Susanne, born November 29, 1783, died March 18, 1844, m. Martin Yoder; Solomon, born December 12, 1790, succeeded to the farm, and died September 28, 1843, the father of four sons - Daniel, David Y. (who now owns the farm), Solomon, and Obediah.

i. SAMUEL YOUNGLOVE, b. about 1634 (aged 1 on 11 September 1635 [Hotten 130]; deposed on 29 September 1657 "aged twenty years" [EQC 2:53]); m. (1) Ipswich 1 August 1660 Sarah Kinsman, daughter of ROBERT KINSMAN {1634, Ipswich} [GM 2:4:188-91]; m. (2) after 2 January 1683/4 (inventory of estate of Edmund Eliot [Hoyt 151-52]) and before 20 January 1686/7 (date of will of Garrett Haddon) Sarah (Haddon) Eliott, daughter of GARRETT HADDON {1630, Boston} and widow of Edmund Eliot [GMB 2:831-33]; m. (3) Ipswich 26 May 1702 Mary Roe (on 25 December 1707, "Mary Younglove of Ipswich ... relict widow to Samuel Younglove of Ipswich," enlisted the assistance of "my brother Samuel Roe" in settling her husband's estate [EPR 310:388-89]).
ii. JOSEPH YOUNGLOVE, b. say 1638; m. by an unknown date Jane Pithouse, daughter of JOHN PITHOUSE {1635, Ipswich} [GM 2:5:471-72] (in his will, dated 14 July 1712 and proved 4 August 1712, "Joseph Younglove of Ipswich" bequeathed to "my wife Jane Younglove ... my housing & all my lands both upland & meadow & all my salt marsh & all my moveables & quick stock, except seven shillings I give to my sister-in-law Susannah Hadley"; to "my cousin Sam[ue]l Younglove ... five shillings"; "my beloved wife Jane Younglove" to be executrix [EPR 310:454]; "sister-in-law Susannah Hadley" was Susanna (Pithouse) Hadley, daughter of John Pithouse and wife of John Hadley, suggesting strongly that Jane, wife of Joseph Younglove, was one of the "five children, being all daughters," of John Pithouse [EQC 1:307; EPR 1:155]).
iii. LYDIA YOUNGLOVE, b. about 1643 (deposed 24 June 1673 "aged about thirty years" [EQC 5:190]); m. (1) in late 1673 or early 1674 Samuel Griffin, son of HUMPHREY GRIFFIN {1639, Ipswich} [Annis Spear Anc 145-47; EQC 5:412]; m. (2) Gloucester 23 October 1691 Henry Witham.
iv. ABIGAIL YOUNGLOVE, b. say 1653; m. Gloucester 5 May 1686 Jeffrey Parsons, son of Jeffrey Parsons [NEHGR 142:248].
v. HANNAH YOUNGLOVE, b. about 1655 (Hannah, wife of Elder James Parsons, d. Gloucester, 11 March 1732/3, aged 78 years); m. Gloucester 18 December 1688 James Parsons, son of Jeffrey Parsons [NEHGR 142:248].
vi. ELIZABETH YOUNGLOVE, b. say 1657 (youngest known child b. Wenham 30 March 1701); m. by an unknown date Henry Haggett.

COMMENTS: There are a number of difficulties in compiling a list of the children of Samuel Younglove. The inclusion of sons Samuel and Joseph, fortunately, poses no problems. Samuel, having been born in England, appeared on the 1635 passenger list [Hotten 130]. In the 1689 grant of administration on the immigrant's estate, Joseph was explicitly called brother of Samuel [EPR 304:202-3].

Two additional points may be made about the son Samuel. First, David W. Hoyt and Edmund K. Swigart proposed that the son Samuel born in England in 1634 had died soon and that a second son of the name was born about 1638 [Hoyt 1034; An Emerson-Benson Saga (Baltimore 2003), 614]. This claim was based on a list of "Persons in Newbury who took the oath of allegiance, 1678, with their ages," which includes "Sam[uel] Younglove, 40" [EQC 7:157]. If we accept this age as accurate, then me must accept the proposal of Hoyt and Swigart; however, ages ending in zero are often approximations, and so we need not necessarily postulate two sons named Samuel. Second, the "Samuell Younglove" who was admitted as a Massachusetts Bay freeman on 26 September 1671 was probably the son of the immigrant rather than the immigrant himself [EQC 4:424].

The identification of the four known daughters of Samuel Younglove is ultimately dependent on the reopening of his probate proceedings in early 1723. The appointment of "his grandson Sam[ue]ll Griffin of Gloster" as administrator demonstrates that Lydia, the wife of the elder Samuel Griffin, was Lydia Younglove, and that Lydia was the daughter of Samuel Younglove [EPR 313:590; Annis Spear Anc 145-47]. (The reason for reopening the probate case for Samuel Younglove is not apparent. Interestingly, though, at about the same time, on 16 March 1722/3, a deed of 9 May 1702 was recorded, in which "Samuel Younglove, wheelwright, & Joseph Younglove, laborer, both of Ipswich, confirmed the earlier deed made by their father to William Goodhue [ELR 41:22, confirming ILR 3:163].)

This same probate document provides the further information that "Jeffry Parsons & Henry Haggitt ... desire that administration on the estate of their father Sam[ue]ll Younglove might be granted unto Sam[ue]ll Griffin of Gloster." Jeffrey Parsons was known to have married Abigail Younglove, so this item proves her parentage. Hannah Younglove had married James Parsons, brother of Jeffrey Parsons, at about the same time, on which basis we place her as another daughter of Samuel Younglove. The only Henry Haggett alive at the time had wife Elizabeth, who must be another daughter of Samuel.

Note that these three daughters, Abigail, Hannah and Elizabeth, were apparently all born in the late 1650s. If Margaret Leggatt was about twenty years old when she married Samuel Younglove in 1633, she would have been about forty-four at the time Elizabeth was born. This would be late in a woman's childbearing range, but within biological norms.

Finally, we must deal with James Younglove and John Younglove, who appeared in Essex County in the late 1650s. On 9 April 1657, John Younglove deposed in a court case involving Samuel Belcher, Hackaliah Bridges and Nehemiah Jewett [EQC 2:40-41]. On or about 28 November 1659, "James Younglove, aged twenty-seven years, herdsman," deposed in an Ipswich dispute over cattle and fencing [EQC 2:184-85].

Hoyt went through several stages in coming to the conclusion that these two men were sons of Samuel Younglove. "We have found no positive proof that John and James were sons of Samuel1, but all the facts known render the supposition highly probable" [Hoyt 373]. "The Ipswich records furnish proof that (4) John2 and (5) James3 Younglove were sons of (1) Samuel1" [Hoyt 823]. "Proof has been found" [Hoyt 1034]. Unfortunately, Hoyt did not state explicitly where in the "Ipswich records" he had found this evidence.

On 26 March 1667, the "inventory of the estate of James Younglove of Quaubauge lately deceased (who died intestate) was presented to the court and power of administration upon the said estate is granted to his brother John Younglove who accepted thereof. And distribution of the said estate is referred to the court that is to be holden at Springfeild in September next except the two surviving brethren & their sister shall agree about it between themselves in the meantime" [HamPR 1:84]. On 31 March 1668, there was "presented to this court a writing certifying an agreement between the 2 brethren & sister of James Younglove of Quaubauge deceased about the division of the estate of the said James who died intestate, which was allowed by the court, the original of the said certificate being on file" [HamPR 1:97].

This settlement of the estate of James Younglove is not consistent with what we know of the family of the immigrant Samuel Younglove. In 1667 James Younglove is said to have had two brothers and one sister, and one of these brothers would have been his administrator, John Younglove. If James and John were sons of Samuel, James would have had three brothers and four sisters living in 1667.

There are other discrepancies as well. In 1659 James gave his age as twenty-seven, which would place his birth in 1632, one year before the marriage of Samuel Younglove. If James was a son of Samuel, and if this age was correct, then Samuel must have had an earlier marriage, and James should have appeared on the 1635 ship passenger list. The age given in 1659 might, of course, have been inaccurate, but this bit of evidence does not help the identification of James and John as sons of Samuel.

Finally, although James and John Younglove were briefly in Ipswich and vicinity in the late 1650s, there is no evidence that they ever interacted directly with Samuel Younglove and his family. For all these reasons, we conclude that James and John were not sons of the immigrant Samuel Younglove. They may, however, have been closely related to him.

Said wards has no other personal estate in expectancy from the execution of any trust or otherwise. The annual Value of the proceeds from said real estate is about sixty dollars, and a large amount of taxes and Expenses must annually accrue to said premises. INFORMATION EXTRACTED FROM ESTATE PAPERS OF NICHOLAS GETZ (the younger) who died intestate

In August of 1833, widow Elizabeth Getz renounces her right to be administration of the estate. Christian Koch, her son-in-law will act as administrator. The inventory of the estate came to $463.12.

In November:

John Koch was appointed guardian for Sarah Getz, a minor above the age of 14.

Joseph Palm was appointed guardian of William Getz, a minor above the age of 14.

Peter Weitzel was appointed guardian of Isaac Getz.

Joseph Palm was appointed guardian of Louisa Getz.

John Palm was appointed guardian of Franklin Getz.

Also in November, Christian Koch submitted this petition: That the said intestate died on the ___ day of March 1833 leaving a wife named Elizabeth and six children to wit - Mary - Sarah - William - Franklin - Isaac and an infant - five of whom are minors - and seized of 25 acres 86 perches of land in Cumru Twp. bounded by lands of John Gerber, Henry & Dieter Wardholl, Peter Bending and John Sharman, and the undivided half bounded by the lands of Samuel Bell, Isaac Hain and others of fifty acres of woodland in Cumru Twp. - and a lot at Sinking Spring containing an acre and a half of ground - on which is erected a one story log house - that the personal estate is insufficient to pay the debts and maintain the minor children as appears by this inventory and statement forthwith presented. Your petitioner therefore prays that the court will order that the said twenty five acres and 86 perches and the said undivided half of the 50 acres of woodland be sold for the payment of debts and the maintenance of the minor children.

Personal property appraised at $ 463
Real Estate
25 acres 86 perches cost 1200
House & lot at Sinking Spring 1300

Woodland	$400

Debts due and owing by intestate at the time of his death $866.50

Also in November 1833, Christian Koch and Frederick Koch of Heidelberg Twp. were bonded for $2000 to sell the property of Nicholas Getz, dec'd, 25 acres and 86 perches in Cumru Twp. and the undivided half of fifty acres of woodland in Cumru Twp.

The 25 acres and 86 perches were sold to Absolem Ruth for $1400. (In 1834 the entire woodland was sold to Samuel Addams for $635.40, but, of course, only half this amount went to the estate. These papers do not say who owned the other half of the woodland.)

In June of 1834, the house and lot were appraised at $1050.

The house and lot were sold for $1350.

In March of 1840, Elizabeth petitioned that because of mismanagement, John Koch and Peter Weitzel be discharged from the guardianship of Nicholas F. Getz and Isaac Getz. (One son is sometimes referred to as Franklin and sometimes as Nicholas F.) Their uncle, Francis Palm, became their guardian.
